TIM WARD APPOINTMENT

Tim Ward has been appointed NGK Spark Plugs (UK) Ltd's National Sales Manager for the UK and Ireland.

The 49-year-old was formerly Key Accounts Manager for the North where he was also responsible for buying group business and leading the northern sales team.

In his new role Tim will be responsible for heading the NGK sales operation in the UK and Ireland.

He said: "I am looking forward to leading the sales team in the UK and Ireland and tackling the challenge of consolidating and growing the business with our customer base."

Martin Pring, General Manager - Sales and Marketing, NGK Spark Plugs (UK) Ltd, said: "I am delighted that Tim had been promoted to this new role. His appointment is a reward for the hard work and professionalism he has shown since joining NGK which I am sure will help him succeed in his new position."

Tim has been with the company for the past 10 years, having previously worked in the automotive industry for Tetrosyl and Snap-on.

Married to wife Tina, he has a 20-year-old daughter, Kirsty. A keen golfer, Tim is also a passionate fan of Rugby League side Leeds Rhinos.
